Canada/Middle-East Policy:

Now, we’d like to ask a few questions about foreign policy.

1. Would you say you’re more inclined to respect or to condemn the governments of the following countries?

[RANDOMIZE]

Saudi Arabia
Iran
Turkey
Egypt
Israel
Jordan
Lebanon

Condemn
Respect
Not sure

2. Now, considering the same countries, which areas, if any, would you say Canada should pursue with each of them?

[COLUMNS]
Military co-operation, including arms deals
Economic and trade ties
Educational and cultural ties
[EXCLUSIVE] None

[ROWS]
Saudi Arabia
Iran
Turkey
Egypt
Israel
Jordan
Lebanon

3. As you may have heard, the federal Liberal government has continued to support a $15 billion deal to sell arms to Saudi Arabia that was negotiated during the previous Conservative government. In your opinion, is the current federal government’s decision to stick by this arms deal a good or a bad one?

Good decision
Bad decision
Not sure/Can’t say
4. Recently, a number of countries, including Canada, lifted economic sanctions against Iran, “normalizing” relations because it signed an international treaty to curb its nuclear program. Do you think Canada “normalizing” relations with/lifting sanctions on Iran will be good or bad for each of the following?

   Canada
   Iran
   International Security

   Bad
   Good
   Not Sure