House Rising

With the current Parliamentary session starting summer recess in the coming days, we’d like to ask a few questions about the House of Commons.

HR1. Overall, how well would you say the Canadian House of Commons represents the interests and concerns of each of the following groups:

[KEEP THIS ORDER]
People like you
Your region of the country
Canadians as a whole

Very poorly
Fairly poorly
Fairly well
Very well
Not sure / Don’t know

HR2. The Liberals and Justin Trudeau were elected as the new federal government last fall. Would you say the House of Commons is working better, worse, or about the same as it was during the previous government?

Now working better
About the same
Now working worse
Not sure/DK

HR3. There has been some discussion about the Liberal government’s overall accomplishments since they were elected last fall. All things considered, would you say they have been:

[KEEP THIS ORDER]
Making real progress and getting things done
Putting too much emphasis on "PR" and photo ops
Both
Neither
Not sure/Don’t know

HR4. Overall, do you approve or disapprove of the performance of each of the following:

[KEEP THIS ORDER]
Prime Minister and Liberal Party leader Justin Trudeau
Conservative Party and Official Opposition interim leader Rona Ambrose
New Democratic Party (NDP) leader Thomas Mulcair
Bloc Québécois interim leader Rhéal Fortin
Green Party leader Elizabeth May
