

Women on money:

1. The Bank of Canada has announced it will feature a woman (other than Queen Elizabeth II) on a Canadian banknote in 2018. The denomination of the bill has not been announced, and the process of determining which woman (or women) will be featured is ongoing.

What is your opinion on this issue? Would you say you agree or disagree with the following statement:

“There should be at least one woman (other than the Queen) featured on the front of a Canadian banknote.”

Strongly agree

Moderately agree

Moderately disagree

Strongly disagree

2. How important do you personally consider this issue of the representation of women on Canadian currency?

Let's use a five-point scale, where 1 means “not important at all” and 5 means “very important.” You can, of course, choose any number in between.

1 – Not important at all

2

3

4

5 – Very important

3. In order to be considered for inclusion on a banknote, a woman must meet the following criteria established by the Bank of Canada:

- She must be Canadian (by birth or naturalization),
- She must have “demonstrated outstanding leadership, achievement or distinction in any field, benefiting the people of Canada, or in the service of Canada,”
- She can't be a fictional character
- And she must have died before April 15, 1991

Below is the Bank of Canada's “long list” of 12 women who meet these criteria and will be considered. Which one or two would you most like to see on a Canadian banknote? (Select up to two)

[RANDOMIZE]

Pitseolak Ashoona – Inuit graphic artist known for depictions of traditional Inuit life

Thérèse Casgrain – Suffrage campaigner in Quebec, first woman to head a Canadian political party

Nellie McClung – Member of the ‘Famous Five’ who won women the right to be appointed to the Senate

Viola Desmond – Known for fighting racial segregation at a Nova Scotia theatre

Lotta Hitschmanova – Founder of one of Canada’s first international development agencies (USC Canada)

E Pauline Johnson (Tekahionwake) – Poet known for her work celebrating her Aboriginal heritage

Elizabeth (Elsie) MacGill – First female aircraft designer in the world, first Canadian woman to earn an engineering degree

Gabrielle Roy – French Canadian author who won the Governor General’s award for fiction 3 times

Lucy Maud Montgomery – Author of Anne of Green Gables and 21 other novels and books of stories

Emily Carr – Artist known for her post-impressionist paintings, especially of Indigenous culture

Fanny (Bobbie) Rosenfeld – Olympic track and field athlete and sports columnist for the Globe and Mail

Idola Saint-Jean – First woman from Quebec to run for federal office

[ANCHORED – EXCLUSIVE] None of these