

Views of NAFTA and partners
February 2017

Q4 (T) Canada, the US, and Mexico implemented the North American Free Trade Agreement (or NAFTA) in 1994. Overall, would you say NAFTA has generally:

- Benefitted Canada
- Hasn't really had an impact one way or the other
- Hurt Canada
- Not sure / Don't know

Q5 (T) Overall, what would you like to see happen with NAFTA over the next few years? Would you prefer to see NAFTA:

- Strengthened and expanded
- Left in place as is
- Re-negotiated
- Done away with entirely
- Not sure / Don't know

Q6. There has been a lot of talk out of Washington and Ottawa in recent weeks about renegotiating NAFTA. Regardless of how you personally feel about what should happen with NAFTA in the next few years, what do you think will happen to the trade agreement?

- It will remain largely unchanged
- It will be re-negotiated
- It will completely fall apart
- Really can't say

Q7 Again, regardless of how you personally feel about what should happen with NAFTA in the next few years, do you think Canada will emerge from NAFTA re-negotiation better off than now, the same or worse off?

- Better off
- The same
- Worse off
- Don't know

Q8 Suppose NAFTA no longer existed. If that were the case, which North American country should Canada focus its trade efforts on?

- The United States
- Mexico
- Both countries equally
- Not sure/Don't know
