Feb. 16-20, 2023

[Text box]

As you may know, on Feb. 24, 2022 Russia invaded Ukraine. The war continues to be fought in Ukraine's eastern and southeastern regions.

Since the beginning of the invasion, there have been thousands of deaths, including civilians. More than 250,000 Russian and Ukrainian soldiers have been killed or wounded. The Canadian government has provided support to Ukraine throughout the conflict, including more than $1 billion in military assistance. The Canadian government has also implemented sanctions against Russian individuals, businesses and the government in response to the invasion.

There are a number of things the Canadian government can do to support Ukraine. Some of these Canada has been doing since the war began. Please select all, if any, you think Canada should do:

[Randomize]

- Offer military training
- Use targeted economic sanctions: Certain Russians can't do business/access money in Canada
- Prohibit imports or exports between Canada and Russia
- Send humanitarian aid – medicine, food, medical personnel etc.
- Provide more loans or cash to Ukraine to fund its defence
- Provide defensive weapons and gear – night goggles, helmets, armour, radios, etc.
- Send more "lethal aid" to Ukraine – guns, tanks, ammunition etc.
- Provide intelligence and cybersecurity support
- Send Canadian troops to fight alongside Ukrainians forces
- Enforce a "no-fly" zone over Ukraine, i.e. shoot down Russian jets
- Do nothing more/stay out of it [Fixed]

Since last February, Canada has had a special immigration program that allows people fleeing Ukraine to temporarily live, work and study in Canada. The program provides an unlimited number of Ukrainians and their families with a visa to stay and work in Canada for up to three years. More than 155,000 Ukrainians have come to Canada since last February.

This program is set to end on March 31. Would you support or oppose extending this program?

Some people say Ukraine should negotiate a peace treaty with Russia to bring an end to the war, even though this would mean the country would lose territory Russia currently occupies. Others believe

Ukraine should keep fighting the war, even at the cost of more lives, until it completely drives Russia from its borders. As you may know, Russia had previously claimed the Crimean Peninsula before the 2022 conflict.

What do you believe?

Ukraine should negotiate peace with Russia

Ukraine should continue to fight the war until it reclaims its eastern provinces

Ukraine should continue to fight the war until it reclaims ALL its territory – including the Crimea

You said you believe Ukraine should continue to fight the war against Russia. For how long, if at all, should Canada continue to provide military assistance to Ukraine?

As long as it takes, until Ukraine reclaims all its territory

For at least one more year, Canada has no obligation beyond that

Canada has done enough, it should stop providing military assistance now

Don't know/ Can't say
