First, Bill C-5, known as the One Canadian Economy Act, is legislation proposed by the federal government. How closely have you been following this issue in recent weeks?

Very closely – Reading a lot of stories and discussing it with friends and family

Closely, following the issue, and having the odd conversation about it

Not following that closely, just scanning the headlines

Not following it at all

QE2.

Base=All

Single choice

Here are some key parts to this bill. Please tell us whether you support or oppose each of the following:

[randomize]

Reducing trade/labour barriers between provinces

“Fast-tracking” major infrastructure projects

Declaring some projects (like a pipeline, a national energy grid, or other infrastructure) “in the national interest” to override provincial oversight

Condensing or bypassing environmental reviews in certain cases

Limiting provinces’ abilities to block energy, mining, or clean-tech projects

Requiring consultation from Indigenous communities, but not offering a full veto on projects declared in the national interest
